

Mary Beth George, MEd, LPC, Certified Gottman Therapist

2330 Timber Shadows Drive, Suite 106, Kingwood, TX 77339, O: (281) 812-7529 C: (281) 883-2749

Informed Consent and Practice Policies

Thank you for choosing me to help you at this time. I am both a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) in the state of Texas, Certified Gottman Therapist (CGT) for couples counseling and Master Trainer and Consultant for the Gottman Institute. The licenses I hold allow me to provide therapy services to individuals, families and couples. I work with people with a variety of concerns and issues and am a sole practitioner. I have received extensive training to help couples achieve greater love and health in their relationship from the Gottman Institute and earned the designation of Certified Gottman Therapist. Please read through this disclosure statement carefully and ask me about anything you don't understand. I will work with you to the best of my ability to help facilitate positive changes in your life.

Counseling Process and Relationship – I believe that counseling is an interactive process between client and therapist. Participation in counseling involves active listening by both counselor and client, honesty by both parties and openly discussing concerns about the counseling process. Effective counseling requires that the client and the counselor develop a healthy relationship with clear boundaries. I believe that each client is an individual with unique concerns, strengths and values. Please know that I am a professional that is committed to your welfare.

It is important to understand that we have a professional relationship. Contacts, other than chance meetings will be limited to scheduled appointments. If I see you in a public setting, in an effort to protect your confidentiality, I will wait for you to speak to me before I acknowledge you.

In our initial session we will discuss your presenting concerns, your history and the goals you want to achieve in counseling. If I am meeting with a minor child, I will require the parent or legal guardian to provide that information, and also to discuss the unique issue of confidentiality with a minor. If you are coming in for couple's counseling, the couple is considered to be the client and I will meet with both of you (see more about couples counseling below).

Initially, counseling often results in the client experiencing uncomfortable feelings or thoughts. Because some issues are painful to deal with, things sometimes seem to get harder before they get better. This experience may affect the client's relationship with family members, spouse, or other significant relationships.

The number of sessions that will be needed will depend upon a variety of circumstances. Each person moves at a different pace and each person's struggles are unique. Some clients may require only a few sessions to reach their goals, while others may take several months or possibly longer. You, the client, are responsible for choosing to continue or to terminate therapy at any time. When you are ready to terminate therapy please allow at least one session so we can have closure. If you find that my particular style of therapy does not meet your needs, please feel free to ask for referrals to other therapists.

Couples Counseling: I am certified in Gottman Method™ Couples Counseling, and am a Master Trainer and Consultant for The Gottman Institute. The Gottman Method™ is based on years of scientific research by Dr. John Gottman. If you come in for couple's counseling, our work together will include helping you learn skills that will deepen the friendship and intimacy in your relationship, help you productively manage conflict so you can compromise regarding resolvable problems and dialogue about perpetual issues.

My process for working with couples includes an assessment phase that has three parts. At the first session we will discuss your areas of concern, the history of your relationship and your goals for treatment. Each person will fill out a confidential, online assessment that will help me understand your relationship further. This tool was created by The Gottman Institute and there is a one-time fee of $29.00 for taking and scoring the assessment. The online assessment is not covered by insurance. I will then meet with you each individually to learn your personal histories and discuss your individual perspectives and feelings. Based on that initial session, the written material you complete and your individual sessions, in our third session, I will present you with some recommendations for treatment and we will define some mutually agreed upon goals. Please understand that if you choose to use your insurance you will need to verify that you have both individual and couples or family benefits.

In addition to standard 45-55 minute sessions for couples, I offer extended sessions and marathon therapy. Extended sessions can range in time based on schedules and can be ideal for getting just a little more accomplished than a standard session allows.

Marathon Couples Therapy is designed for couples to change the trajectory of their relationship in a shorter period of time than traditional counseling. This method is ideal for couples coming from a distance from Kingwood, couples who have difficulty setting aside time for weekly appointments, highly distressed couples and couples desiring a more urgent and intensive approach for their issues. Marathon Couples Therapy can be done over the course of 2-3 days or several consecutive days, depending on what works best for the couple. The benefit of this type of therapy is that it builds momentum rapidly with regard to the therapy process, allowing for breakthroughs to be made in a shorter period of time. If you are interested in either extended or marathon therapy, feel free to discuss those options with me.

Fee - My fee is $125 for a 45-55 minute session ($150 for the initial session). Other fees apply for various services, such as copying records and written reports. Payment by cash, check or major credit/debit card is due at the time of your session.

Forensic Rates - Infrequently, you or another person may seek to compel me to testify in court. My fee for such testimony is $500.00 per any portion of an hour for court testimony or deposition. Waiting time and local travel time will be charged at $125.00 per any portion of an hour. In the event that less than 24-hour notice is given for a change in the court schedule, a fee of $750 will be incurred. For out-of-area court appearance, all transportation and lodging expenses must be paid in advance. Records review, consultation with clients, litigants, attorneys (in person or via phone), reports, or any other service provided plus time spent adjusting schedule or any business disruption will be charged at the rate of $125.00 per hour or prorated accordingly. Initial _____

Cancellation and Missed Appointments - Since scheduling an appointment involves reserving a time specifically for you, a 24-hour advance notice is required for cancellations (except in the case of an emergency). If you cancel less than 24 hours before your appointment, you will be considered a NO SHOW for that visit and you will be charged the $75.00 for that session. Once you have two NO SHOW appointments, you will be required to secure any subsequent appointments with a credit card. Subsequent NO SHOW appointments will be charged the FULL FEE ($125.00) for the missed session. Initial _____

Insurance – If you are requesting that I bill your insurance, please fill out the Insurance Authorization and Release completely. If I am “in network” with your insurance company, my fee is reduced based on my contracted rate with your insurance company. You will be responsible for paying your copay at the time of service. It is important and your responsibility that you contact your insurance company to find out whether your benefits allow for individual, couple or family counseling and what the limits of your benefits are since ultimately you are responsible for payment of your therapy costs. You are responsible for all fees not covered or reimbursed by your insurance benefits, including but not limited to, deductibles, co-payments, missed appointments, late cancellations, correspondence/reports or services not approved by your plan. If you have not obtained insurance information by the time of our first visit you will be charged the contracted rate allowed by your insurance plan until we can verify your benefits. If I am not a provider for your insurance plan, you may have out-of-network benefits. If you have such benefits, I can provide you with a receipt that you may submit to your insurance so that you can request reimbursement. Please be aware that I utilize the service of a billing agent to file claims with insurance companies. Some individuals choose not to use their insurance for various reasons. Please understand that if you choose not to use your insurance, I will not go back and bill or reimburse for previous sessions if you change your mind. Initial _____ Telephone Accessibility – I make every effort to respond to messages promptly. Calls left on the business phone (281/812-7529) are generally returned within one working day, during normal business hours. Because technical difficulties or personal emergencies do sometimes occur, please call again if you do not receive a return phone call by the end of the next business day.

Emergency Care - If you are experiencing an emergency and need to talk to someone immediately, call 911, a telephone crisis line or go to the nearest emergency room. Please be aware that when I am out of town there is no on-call back up for my practice.

Electronic Communication - Please be aware that email and texting are not secure means for communicating information. Thus, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed through means and it is best that you limit their use to scheduling issues. If you do send an email or text with other information, I will read it but will most likely wait until your scheduled appointment to respond to that content. If you initiate communication via email or text it will indicate your permission to communicate via these methods and you will assume risk. If you pay for services via credit card a text or email receipt may be sent and that is also not considered secure. In some situations conducting therapy sessions telephonically or via a HIPAA compliant internet site may be appropriate. If we engage in telephonic or internet therapy then you are responsible for securing your own environment to ensure confidentiality. Additionally, if we engage in telephonic or internet therapy we both mutually agree to not record session content. Please be aware that under no circumstance can sessions be audio or video recorded without my prior consent. Initial _____ Social Networking/Media – If you choose to participate in the various forms of social networking/media offered by Couples Counseling and Psychotherapy Associates (i.e. Facebook, Twitter or blogs), please understand that your name and/or picture may be visible to others and therefore your identity cannot be protected in these situations. Colleagues, friends and others also participate in these communication tools and distinctions are not made about who is a client and who is not. Choosing to participate is voluntary. These tools will be used by Couples Counseling and Psychotherapy Associates to disseminate general messages and will not address individual client concerns. We reserve the right to remove any follower’s comments or block any individual from participating.

Consultation - In order to serve you best, I may desire to consult with colleagues or an expert in a particular area relevant to your psychotherapy. I do that without identifying information so that your privacy is protected.

Privacy Rights - Professional ethics and legal standards require that our conversations and my records (even the fact that you are a client) be kept confidential. However, under the following circumstances, I am legally and ethically

